“Windermere has a wonderful on-site relationship with many of the premier residential communities here, and we’re well known for providing exceptional service and products to this segment of the desert’s market,” says Bob Deville, co-owner, Windermere Southern California. “With our newest location here at Indian Wells Country Club, we’re an even more integral part of one of the most iconic country clubs in the history of the Coachella Valley.” In addition to Windermere’s legendary agent support, IWCC clients now have access to all of the administrative benefits of an on-site location for their Indian Wells Country Club real estate transactions.
